

Noted that biodiversity net gain is mentioned in the application form.

I would want to see the details of what this means considering the land, habitat space and eco system services being lost as part of this development.

Without these details I cannot make an assessment of this application in detail